All For Me Grog

And it's [C] all for me grog, me [F] jolly, jolly [C] grog, all for me beer and to-[G]-bacco,
Well, I [C] spent all me tin with the [F] lassies drinkin' [C] gin, far across the western [G] ocean I must wan-[C]-der.

I'm [C] sick in the head and I [F] haven't been to [C] bed, since first I came ashore with me [G] plunder.
I've seen [C] centipedes and snakes, me [F] head is full of [C] aches, and I think I'll take a [G] path for way out yon-[C]-der.

Where are [C] me boots, me [F] noggin' noggin' [C] boots, They're all sold for beer and to-[G]-bacco.
The [C] soles, they were thin and the [F] uppers lettin' [C] in, and the heels were lookin' [G] out for better wea [C] ther. {to chorus}

Where is [C] me shirt, me [F] noggin' noggin' [C] shirt, it's all gone for beer and to-[G]-bacco
The [C] sleeves they were worn out and the [F] collar turned [C] about, and the tail is lookin' [G] out for better wea [C] ther.

Where is [C] me bed, me [F] noggin' noggin' [C] bed,
It's all sold for beer and to-[G]-bacco.
You see, [C] I sold it to a whore 'n now the [F] sheets they got all [C] tore, and the springs are lookin' [G] out for better wea [C] ther.

Where is [C] me wife, me [F] noggin' noggin' [C] wife, She's all gone for beer and to-[G]-bacco.
You see, [C] her front was worn out and her [F] tail was kicked [C] about, and I hope she's lookin' [G] out for better wea [C] ther. {to chorus}
