

Ballad of Martha and Incas

John French, 2018-Feb-21

[C] Martha, oh Martha how lonely can you be? [C7]

[F] Martha, oh Martha how lonely can you [C] be?

[G7] You're in that cage alone; you [F] got no [C] family.

[C] Incas, oh Incas. Where is your Lady Jane? [C7]

[F] Incas, oh Incas. Where is your Lady [C] Jane?

[G7] She's flown away forever, and [F] left you there in [C] vain.

[C] Martha, look at Incas, that lonely parakeet. [C7]

[F] Martha, look at Incas, he's a lonely para[C] keet.

[G7] The Cincinnati Zoo, [F] wants you two to [C] meet.

[C] A pigeon and a parakeet can only be just friends. [C7]

[F] A pigeon and a parakeet can only be just [C] friends.

[G7] She'll never lay an egg. Now she's [F] coming to the [C] end.

[C] Martha met her maker in nineteen and fourteen [C7]

[F] Incas followed later in nineteen and eight [C] teen

[G7] The Pigeon and the Parakeet will [F] nevermore be [C] seen.

[G7] No the Pigeon and the Parakeet will [F] nevermore be [C] seen.
