You've been talking about your woman,
I sure wish that you could see mine
You've been talking about your woman,
Every time the little girl start to loving, she bring eyesight to the blind

Her daddy must a been a millionaire, cause I can tell by the way she walk
Her daddy must a been a millionaire,
cause I can tell by the way she walk Every time she start to loving, the deaf and dumb begin to talk

I remember one Friday morning, Little girl was making up her bread Man in the next room was a dying, stopped dying and held up his head, and said,
"Man, ain't she pretty, the whole state knows she fine!"
Every time she start to loving, she bring eyesight to the blind
