

I Like Being Left Alone

Robbie Fulks

[D] [E7] [A]

[A] I like being left a [D] lone.

I like [E7] chocolate pie, clear blue sky, a glass of Côtes du [A] Rhône.

Yeah, [D] I like summer, [E7] I like fall, [A] I like music, but [D] most of all, I like [E7] being left a-[A] lone.

Talking 'bout [F#m] sales reps... Talkin' 'bout the [A] government...
Talking 'bout the [F#m] children...

[D] I'm talking 'bout [A] you, you, you,

My time is like a [D] sweet plum, and everybody [A] wants some.
I'd rather be [F#m] lonesome, [D] I'd rather be [E7] blue...

[A] I like being left a-[D] lone.

Keep me [E7] well away from the PDA, the traffic and the telephone. [A]

I don't [D] care how little, how [E7] much I earn,
if [A] I could get one thing [D] in return,
I just like [E7] being left a-[A] lone.

[A] We don't have to sit and [F#m] hold hands,
you've already got the [A] gold band.

You say I'm talking like an [F#m] old man,
[D] and maybe that's [A] true.

What's the harm to sit and [D] think some.
add words to a little [A] wisdom?

You can paint the town [F#m] crimson, [D] I'll just stay [E7] blue.

[A] I like being left a-[D] lone.

I like [E7] chocolate pie, clear blue sky, a glass of Côtes du [A] Rhône.

Yeah, [D] I like water, [E7] I like air, [A] I like space,
but [D] not to share,
I like [E7] being left a-[A] lone.

Yeah, [D] I like summer, [E7] I like fall, but the [A] thing that thrills me [D] most of all,

I like [E7] being left a [D] lone. [A]
