

Let The Mystery Be

Iris DeMent

[D] Everybody is [G] wondering what and [A] where they all came [D] from.
Everybody is [G] worrying 'bout where they're gonna [A] go when the whole thing's [D] done.
But no one knows for [G] certain, and so it's [D] all the same to [G] me.
[D] I think I'll just [A] let the mystery [D] be.

Some say once gone you're [G] gone forever, and [A] some say say you're gonna come [D] back.
Some [D] say you rest in the [G] arms of the savior, if in [A] sinful ways you [D] lack.
Some [D] say that they're coming [G] back in a garden, bunch of [D] carrots and little sweet [G] peas.
[D] I think I'll just [A] let the mystery [D] be.

[D] Everybody is [G] wondering what and [A] where they all came [D] from.
Everybody is [G] worrying 'bout where they're gonna [A] go when the whole thing's [D] done.
But no one knows for [G] certain, and so it's [D] all the same to [G] me.
[D] I think I'll just [A] let the mystery [D] be.

Some [D] say they're going to a [G] place called Glory, and I [A] ain't saying it ain't a [D] fact.
But I've heard that I'm on the [G] road to purgatory, and I don't like the sound of [D] that.
[D] I believe in [G] love and I live my [D] life accordingly .[G]
[D] But I choose to [A] let the mystery [D] be.

[D] Everybody is [G] wondering what and [A] where they all came [D] from.
Everybody is [G] worrying 'bout where they're gonna [A] go when the whole thing's [D] done.
But no one knows for [G] certain, and so it's [D] all the same to [G] me.
[D] I think I'll just [A] let the mystery [D] be.
[D] I think I'll just [A] let the mystery [D] be.
