

Put The Bone In

by Terry Jacks (the b-side to Seasons in the Sun)

“Put the bone in” she asked him at the store.
Cause my doggie's been hit by a car.
And I do want to bring him home something.
“Put the bone in” she begged him once more.

Because the meat from the pork is so sweet
Give the bone from the pork-meat to me.
“Put the bone in” she begged him
as she paced around the floor.
“Put the bone in” she yelled out once more.

“Put the bone in” she asked him at the store.
Cause my doggie's been hit by a car.
And I do want to bring him home something.
“Put the bone in” she begged him once more.
