

First note A

[D] Why are there [Bm7] so many [G] songs about [A] rainbows,
[D] and what's on the [Bm7] other [G] side?

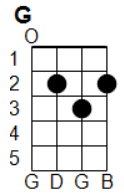

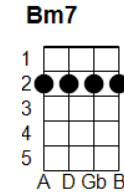

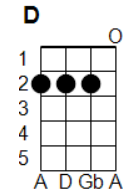

[D] Rainbows are [Bm7] visions, [G] but only [A] illusions.

[D] Rainbows have [Bm7] nothing to [G] hide.

RAINBOW CONNECTION

So we've been told and some choose to believe it. [A7] I know they're [A] wrong, wait and see.

[G] Someday we'll [A] find it, the [D] rainbow con[Bm7]nection,
[G] The lovers, the [A] dreamers, and [D] me.

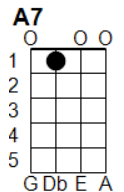

Who said that [Bm7] every wish [G] would be heard and [A] answered.

[D] when wished on the [Bm7] morning [G] star?

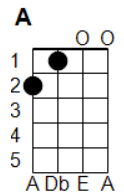

[D] Somebody thought [Bm7] of that and [G] someone believed [A] it.

[D] Look what it's [Bm7] done so [G] far.

What's so amazing that keeps us stargazing? [A7] What do we [A] think we might see?

[G] Someday we'll [A] find it, the [D] rainbow con[Bm7]nection,
[G] The lovers, the [A] dreamers, and [D] me.

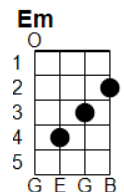

All of us [A] under its [G] spell, We know that it's [Em] probably [A] magic [D] Have you been [Bm7] half asleep and [G] have you heard [A] voices?

[D] I've heard them [Bm7] calling my [G] name.

[D] Is this the [Bm7] sweet sound that [G] calls the young [A] sailors?

[D] The voice might be [Bm7] one and the [G] same.

I've heard it too many times to ignore it. [A7] It's something that [A] I'm supposed to be.

[G] Someday we'll [A] find it, the [D] rainbow con[Bm7]nection,
[G] The lovers, the [A] dreamers, and [D] me.
