

YES! WE HAVE NO BANANAS

Frank Silver and Irving Cohn 1923
Now in the Public Domain

[C] There's a fruit store, [F] on our [C] street. ©

It's [G7] run by a [C] Greek.

And he [F] keeps good things to [C] eat,
but [D7] you should hear him [G7] speak!

When you [C] ask him [F] any [C] thing,
he [G7] never answers [C] "no".

[G] He just "yes-ses" [Gdim] you to death,
and [D7] as he takes your [G7] dough.

He tells you:

Oh [C] YES!, we [F] have no ba [C] nanas [A7]
We [D7] have no ba [G7] nanas, to [C] day. [C7]

We've [F] string beans and [Fm] onions,
[C] cabbages and [A7] scallions,
and [D7] all kinds of fruit and [G7] say,

We got an [F] old fashioned [C] tomato.
A [F] Long Island [G7] potato.

But [C] YES!, we [F] have no ba [C] nanas [A7]
We [D7] have no ba [G7] nanas, to [C] day.